About Us

Data Vision Group (DVG) is a company founded on the key principle of delivering the best quality work that generates tangible business value for our clients. We strive for business excellence and innovation by working side by side with our clients to develop tailor-made solutions to suit all of their needs. We also believe in acting with integrity to build trust and long-term relationships with our clients, partners, and employees.

Company History

DVG is a privately-held, Limited Liability New Jersey Corporation (LLC) formed in 2002 with Johnathan Schwarz as one of the founding Members. In 2008, law enforcement veteran Gary Maio became a Member of the company. Each Member brings expertise in providing innovative solutions to complex business problems, while demonstrating strengths in very specific areas. It is the combination of a singular focus on the Public Safety domain and a diverse and talented staff which gives DVG its unique advantage.

Profitable since its start, the company is in a growth and transformation mode. With the benefit of deep law enforcement industry expertise; long term relationships with thought leaders; and management team depth with no turnover, DVG currently provides its services independently and with strategic partners. Those partners include Microsoft, Dimension Data, Informatica, Sterling Technology Group and ESRI.

Johnathan M. Schwarz, Chief Executive Officer and Managing Partner

As a co-founding partner and CEO, Johnathan provides the strategic vision to maintain DVG as a premier provider of relevant solutions. John is also responsible for ensuring project delivery excellence, client management activities and spearheading business intelligence programs for DVG's clients. For the past 10 years he has led DVG's efforts at the NYPD Real Time Crime Center, and the Domain Awareness System (formerly Lower Manhattan Security Initiative) where he focuses on managing product delivery, business intelligence, reporting, and data integration. Prior to co-founding Data Vision Group, he spent more than eight years at MetLife where he was instrumental in developing and supporting MetLink eReporting, a web-based application used by Benefits Administrators to answer questions related to their benefits programs. He was the primary business intelligence developer on the project, and was a key team member in designing and building portions of MetLife's Institutional Data Warehouse. Prior to this role, he was one of the primary developers of an application for the printing and distribution of Individual Life Insurance policy packages. These roles eventually led him to a senior role in the Institutional Data Warehousing Group. Mr. Schwarz holds a BS in Marketing from Fairfield University.

Gary A. Maio, Chief Operating Officer & Managing Partner

As Chief Operating Officer, Gary is responsible for the day-to-day operations of DVG. Gary manages the DVG Staffing Practice to ensure candidates meet customer expectations. He drives the execution of strategic sales strategies, provides law enforcement and fusion center subject matter expertise and works daily to nurture and maintain relationships with our valued business partners. Gary performs the function of Product Owner within projects utilizing an Agile Methodology for development. Prior to joining DVG in 2008, he spent 23 years in New York Police Department (NYPD) as a Detective in robbery investigations, robbery intelligence,

DVG Reorganization

Saturday, March 1, 2014

We are excited to announce that DVG has undergone a transition of leadership in the past week. Johnathan Schwarz has taken over as Chief Executive Officer of the firm, while Gary Maio has taken over as Chief Operating Officer. Both John and Gary are energized by the reorganization, and look forward to continued success as DVG grows, and sets its sights on the future.
